AT&T U-verse® continued on its path of growth in the fourth quarter of 2013. In fact, as of the fourth quarter, AT&T has more pay TV subscribers than any other telecommunications company. U-verse High Speed Internet had a record fourth-quarter net gain of 630,000 subscribers, to reach a total of 10.4 million, and a record annual increase of 2.7 million. In addition to subscribers, AT&T U-verse grew its content and app offering, adding more than 100 live TV channels and new apps including The Weather Channel App. Below is a recap of our AT&T U-verse growth and highlights for the fourth quarter.

SERVICE GROWTH: U-verse hits 10.7 million total subscribers

- 5.5 million U-verse TV customers.
- 3.8 million U-verse Voice connections.
- 10.4 million U-verse High Speed Internet customers.
- AT&T U-verse bundles available in 139 markets (MSAs) across 22 states.
- More than 90 percent of U-verse TV customers also subscribe to High Speed Internet.
- About two-thirds of U-verse TV customers have a triple- or quad-play bundle.
- AT&T U-verse now has annualized total revenues of $13 billion.

SERVICE EVOLUTION: Continued innovation in apps and speed

- Launched The Weather Channel App, which gives customers customized, accurate and up-to-the-minute weather information, including current conditions, hourly forecast, five-day forecast, radar maps and more.
- Lit up Austin with AT&T U-verse with GigaPowerSM, an all-fiber network featuring the city's fastest Internet speeds for consumers of up to 300 Mbps and plans, along with advanced TV services. Plans include increasing speeds up to 1 Gigabit per second in 2014.
- Announced more than 100 live channels on the U-verse App for smartphone and tablet.
- Launched beIN SPORT PLAY, which allows AT&T U-verse sports fans can now catch all the live action on the field even when they're away from home.

* Geographic and service restrictions apply to AT&T U-verse services. Go to att.com/u-verse to see if you qualify.
 All figures as of the end of the fourth quarter of 2013.